

Visa Fee (Unit: Peso) and Processing Time

Number of Entries	Single	Double	6 months multiple	12 months Multiple
Philippine Passport	1400	2100	2800	4200
U.S.A Passport	6500	6500	6500	6500
Other Passports	1700	2550	3400	5100

Regular processing time is 4 working days.

Express service (third working day release): an additional fee of 1100 pesos per visa will be charged.

Rush service (second working day release): an additional fee of 1700 pesos per visa will be charged.

Pay visa fees when collecting passport.

Only cash payment is accepted.

Other Important Information

- 1) The visa application form must be filled out truly, clearly and completely. It should be signed by the applicant upon completion. Application of minors should be signed by their parents or legal guardians.
- 2) The application materials should be authentic and complete. Forged and incomplete applications will be denied.
- 3) The applicant should answer questions from the visa officers truthfully. According to China's relevant laws and regulations and international practice, visa officers have the right to require the applicant to submit additional supporting documents, and to refuse application without specifying any reason.
- 4) The applicant is also responsible to check the visa after obtaining it. Should there be any discrepancy, please contact the officer immediately.
- 5) The applicant should be held responsible for the following circumstances:
 - a. Denial of visa due to incomplete visa application form or false information.
 - b. Denial of visa due to unqualified/damaged photos and passports, or failure to provide additional supporting documents requested by visa officer.
 - c. Denial of boarding or entry due to visa expiration or failure to provide a valid visa.
 - d. Other personal reasons.